

GECI International

Privacy Policy

Since May 25, 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) has come into force. The company intends to comply with this new European regulation which aims to protect your privacy. Your personal data (name, postal address and telephone numbers when you have provided them, e-mail address) are kept in a secure database. They are strictly confidential and cannot be sold, transferred or shared under any circumstances.